SOUTH ASIAN OUTLOOK e-Monthly - More Than a Web Site

By Jaswinder Marjara
Publisher CanIndia News Weekly

South Asian Outlook, which claims to be North America's First and An Independent e-Monthly, was launched to coincide with Canada Day in 2001.

Over the last ten months we have carefully followed the claim made by the e-Monthly and have no doubt that it has lived up to the claim made.

The August issue was a special, Celebrating Independence, with in-depth articles about India and Pakistan, providing a balanced and un-biased view of the happenings in the Indian sub-continent.

From the August issue, South Asian Outlook, received Messages from various dignitaries- including BC Premier, Ministers, MPs and MPPs, Ambassadors, High Commissioner and TV President and Producer, and these are still coming in.

South Asian Outlook has been available online at: www.SouthAsianOutlook.com

It is about and for South Asians and South Asian-origin people all over the world. Being freely available on the Internet, you are never more than a click away from the latest issue of the e-Monthly or from the Back Issues, available online, with no log-in and no password required.

It does provide MORE THAN NEWS & VIEWS. With direct links to newspapers from all over the world, there is no restriction, no agenda that is being pursued by the publishers of the e-Monthly.

The views covered are without bias and it does provide a forum for differing views.

Since South Asia is affected, like any other part of the world, by what happens in other parts of the world, whether it is Afghanistan, attack on America, corruption, war on terrorism, it has expressed views which may not please all.

And then there are links to various topics in different South Asian countries, thereby providing a reference source for South Asians. I must say that it still needs to do a little more to be the complete source as it claims to be.

50th and + birthdays and or any extra ordinary events in lives of ordinary people. I don't hesitate to recommend this to the savvy and the not so savvy young and old who are looking for more than a website on the Internet.
