A Message from the Premier

As Premier of the Province of British Columbia, I am very pleased to congratulate the management, staff and readers of South Asian Outlook as it completes its momentous tenth year of publication.

Since its inception in 2001, this award-winning, e-monthly publication has remained committed to highlighting the many achievements of South Asians in the fields of art, culture, politics and business. The publication has been a popular forum for South Asians, and non-South Asians, to come together to share experiences and exchange ideas.

The e-magazine has provided a great opportunity for both readers and staff to reconnect with members of their communities, and share and promote their rich and vibrant culture with an international audience.

I would like to commend everyone involved with the magazine for their commitment to the publication and for representing a diverse array of perspectives and backgrounds. I wish South Asian Outlook the best of luck in its future endeavors and once again, congratulations on your significant milestone.

Sincerely,
